REGISTRATION

1. You can register in MegaWorld only if you are a registered participant of Megabucks, i.e. you have registered at the hospitality desk and received the Megabucks I-card.

For IIT Kanpur students, the registration will be online and the I-cards will be distributed in their respective messes on 7 January.

2. Profiles allotted to you are generated in a completely random fashion.

3. Salaries received will specifically depend on the profiles and would change every MegaDay (average salary of all the profiles is same).

4. In one day there are two MegaDay. One MegaDay is an actual period of 6 hours (11am -5pm and 6pm-12pm), and you receive your salaries for each MegaDay.

5. All transactions made by you will be valid only if it is authenticated by MegaWorld team.

I NEED U

“I Need U” is a social networking game. In this game you would have to interact and give - take services .Negotiate with Megacitizens and earn plum Megabucks rewards.

Megabucks citizens are allotted different professions and each person is allotted a task to be completed .Tasks are designed to socialize you with the other professionals and you have to negotiate with them in order to be aided. After all interdependence of different professional is the crux of human society.

You can win upto 5000 Megabucks!!!

IPO & STOCK TRADE

Ever thought of implementing your corporate ideas and advertising them among the potential consumers/customers when all at stake is virtual money? If yes, then Megaworld Stock Market is the place for you to test them right now! Interested Megabucks citizens would register their company, launch their IPO and a panel will select which companies will stay in next round. Selected companies are pitched to the trading floor and the companies fight for their survival in this fast paced, mind nerving game. People would then invest in these companies and trade their stocks .Finally companies will be rewarded corresponding to their performance.

Megacitizens can trade the shares of these companies and change their fortune with the fortune of these companies.

BUSINESS TAMBOLA

You have played Tambola now we present you Business Tambola.

First tambola sheet is provided free of cost at the time of registration. In addition to this you can purchase 2 more tambola sheets on payment of 100 Megabucks each on Saturday(10/01/09) before the start of game. No tambola sheet would be distributed after that.

More than 15,000 Megabucks to be won.

BUCKS KA DUM

“Bucks Ka Dum” is inspired from the international show Power of 10, Dus Ka Dum .According to the show format, five simple questions are asked from the contestants. These questions have already been polled between the Megacitizens. Your answers must match the already polled answers. For example: What percentage of Megacitizen think it's important to drink a glass of milk on their wedding night? You must think like fellow Megacitizens before you answer. You can win upto 20,000 Megabucks.

The journey to 20,000 Megabucks is simple and fast—after all, all it takes is five steps. The questions are always interesting and thought provoking, but your answers have to be more accurate with each step.
