

CRYPTO

Pool Event

Points: 30

Rules:

1. It is an individual event.
2. Participants have to register ONLINE.
3. The competition will be open until the final question is cracked.
4. Clues, doubts, clarifications (if any) should be posted in forums and moderators will respond accordingly.
5. The participant to crack the last question first will be declared as the winner.
6. In case of leaking of answers between players or trying to answer by illegal methods, the participant will be banned or disqualified and the decision of the moderators in that case will be final and binding.
7. If in any case the event stops at some point (due to cheat or fraud by any pool, depending only on consensus of event coordinators), the ranking will be done based on the performance till that point.
8. Rules and directions pertaining to specific sections will be provided alongside.
9. Any sort of attempt to contact moderators personally will lead to disqualification of the participant.
10. The answer can either be accepted in the text box provided or by changing the url. Note, all answers will be in lowercase without spaces and special characters.
11. Hints will be provided in the title of the page, page source etc.
12. In case of any conflict, the coordinator's decision is final.
