

MANIFESTO

Anika Jain, DUGC Student Nominee

I am Anika Jain (11089) contesting for the post of DUGC Student Nominee from Chemical Department.

VISION

Implementation of the below stated steps would help in bridging the gap between the departmental faculty and the students. Awareness would be created among students about various programs/courses offered by different departments. Students would be given the opportunity of interaction with professors to get an insight into various future prospects and help them pursue their interest.

MISSION

If elected, I shall try to implement the following during my tenure based upon the feasibility, and shall base my work along these lines:

- REVIEW AND SAY OF DUGC NOMINEE IN FORMULATION OF DEPARTMENTAL CORE TIME TABLE.
- MONTHLY ORGANISATION OF INFORMAL INTERACTION SESSIONS ADDRESSING THE QUERIES OF STUDENTS AND HELPING THEM IN EXPLORING THEIR INTERESTS BY DEPARTMENTAL PROFESSORS.
- PLACEMENT PREPARATION SESSIONS FOR DEPARTMENTAL STUDENTS IN FORM OF GROUP DISCUSSIONS AND COMPANY PROFILE SESSIONS
- PRIOR INFORMATION ABOUT MINORS, DOUBLE MAJOR, DUAL PROGRAMS OFFERED BY DIFFERENT DEPARTMENTS.
- PROFESSORS CAN BE REQUESTED TO SET THE CRITERIA FOR STUDENTS PASSIONATE ABOUT RESEARCH WHO WILL BE RECOMMENDED BY THEM TO PRESTIGIOUS RESEARCH INSTITUTES.
- REGULAR INDUSTRIAL TRIPS CAN BE ORGANISED TO GIVE AN EXPOSURE OF ON-FIELD WORK AND HELP IN CULTIVATING DEPARTMENTAL SENSE OF UNIFICATION.
- ASSISTANCE TO ACADEMICALLY STRUGGLING STUDENTS BY PROVIDING LINKS BETWEEN THEM AND PROFESSORS.

CREDENTIALS

- Departmental Rank 1 among 72 students.
- CPI 9.7 with SPI 10.0 in two consecutive semesters.
- Part of editorial team of scientific magazine NERD.
- Editor of Newsletter published in Model United Nations, Antaragni 2012
