15. In all decision making bodies of the Gymkhana and at all levels, the organizational principles shall be democratic.
16. In all matters of general interest, the Executive councils, cells and the committees and councils of the Senate, all bodies appointed by the Senate, and all other bodies of the Gymkhana except its Advisory Body and General Body, shall be subordinate to the Students' Senate, and therein the Senate shall be subordinate to the General Body.
17. The general interest of the students shall be placed above the interest of any individual student.
18. Majority decisions shall be binding. Persons holding different views at any level shall have the right to committee and report directly to all higher bodies up to and including the General Body (as in Article 2.14). However, the decisions taken shall be executed until and unless higher bodies undo them.
19. The President or the Chairperson may convene a meeting of the General Body on their own initiative to discuss matters of general importance. The meeting shall be presided over by whosoever convenes it.
20. The President or the Chairperson may refer any matter to the General Body through a meeting (as per Article 2.17) or through a referendum if so requested by at least 1/3rd of the total strength of the Senate.
21. In case a decision of the Senate is taken by a majority but with a substantial minority (that is, more than 1/3rd of the Senators present voted against the decision) the President or Chairperson may refer the matter to the General Body (as in Article 2.18). In this case, the Senate may not censure or impeach them for this action.
22. The President and the Chairperson shall have the power to requisition a meeting of any Executive council or cell or any subcommittee, committee or council of the Senate.
23. Notwithstanding any other Articles of the Constitution, the President may attend as a full-fledged member any meetings of any Executive council or cell, or any subcommittee, committee or council of the Senate or any other body appointed by the Senate except for the Rules and Procedures Committee, the Finance Committee, the Steering Committee and the Election Commission, and may overrule any decisions taken by them. In the event of the President doing so, they shall be obliged, if requested by the concerned body, to requisition a meeting of the Senate and place their decision before it.

24. Notwithstanding any other Articles of the Constitution, the Chairperson may attend as a full-fledged member any meeting of any subcommittee, committee or council of the Senate.
25. During vacations (as specified in the Academic Calendar of the Institute), the Vacation Senate, consisting of all Senators present on campus, shall discuss matters of urgent importance. Other matters may also be discussed; however, any decisions taken must be ratified by the full Senate when it meets next.
26. Every year, there shall be a handing over session which shall be jointly attended by members of both the incoming as well as outgoing Senate as full-fledged members. The outgoing Executives, Chairperson Students' Senate, Finance Convener and Parliamentarian of the Gymkhana and of the Senate shall handover charge to the respective incoming Executives, Chairperson Students' Senate, Finance Convener and Parliamentarian in writing, under the supervision of the Chairperson of the incoming Senate. The annual report of the Gymkhana, consisting of the reports of all the aforementioned positions along with the reports of councils, cells, teams and festivals, shall be presented before the Senate for comments.
27. The Members of the Senate must attend every meeting of the Senate. If they are not able to attend a meeting, they are expected to nominate another student of their batch to attend the meeting on their behalf. The attendance rules for Senators and Executives shall be documented in the Rules and Procedures of the Students' Senate (Appendix A).
  1. Any Senator who shall be unable to attend a meeting of the Senate is expected to inform the Chairperson for their aforementioned inability and must take prior permission before doing so. If they fail to do so, or if they are absent from too many meetings (as specified in the Rules and Procedures of the Students' Senate), then they shall cease to hold their position.
  2. Any Executive, Finance Convener or Parliamentarian, who shall be unable to attend a meeting of the Senate is expected to inform the Chairperson for their aforementioned inability and must take prior permission before doing so. If they fail to do so, the Chairperson shall issue a show-cause notice to them. If the concerned person is unable to present a satisfactory explanation (as determined by 2/3rd of the Senate present and voting, and not less than half the total strength of the Senate), or if they are absent again without prior permission from the Chairperson, then they shall cease to hold their position.
28. If the President, any General Secretary, the Chairperson or the Finance Convener is not on campus due to vacation, is on leave from the Institute or is otherwise unable to fulfil their duties for a short period of time, then they may appoint any member of the General Body as the Acting position holder for the duration of their absence. The Acting position holder shall take care of all responsibilities of the position holder, and any action taken by or on them shall be considered an action taken by or on the position holder.

29. If the Parliamentarian or the Convener of any Standing Council or Standing Committee of the Senate is unable to attend a Senate meeting, or is otherwise unable to fulfil their duties for a short period of time, then they may appoint any member of the General Body as the Acting position holder for the duration of their absence. The Acting position holder shall take care of all responsibilities of the position holder, and any action taken by or on them shall be considered an action taken by or on the position holder.

4. General Elections shall ordinarily be held around 20th January each year. However, under exceptional situations, the Senate may postpone it for a maximum period of one month.

5. The Election Commission shall conduct Mid-term elections annually for the following Members of the Senate, who shall officiate until the Senate hands over charge:
  1. Senator BT/BS, 1st Year
  2. Senator MTech (2-year), 1st Year
  3. Senator MBA, MDes and other 2-year programmes, 1st Year
  4. Senator MSc (2-year), 1st Year
6. By-elections shall ordinarily be conducted along with the Mid-term Elections for any position mentioned in Article 3.02 which is vacant at that point of time.
7. Mid-term elections shall be held in August or early September each year.
8. In case no Girl Senator of the respective communities as per article 2.03.03 is elected, the elections of the respective Girl Representative shall be conducted by the same Election Commission. Further, if any Girl Senator of the respective communities gets elected during the Mid-Term election, the incumbent respective Girl Representative shall stand unseated from office.
9. Notwithstanding any other article in the constitution, the eligibility criteria for each of the above positions shall be as stated in the Appendix F to the Constitution.
10. The President and the General Secretaries shall be elected from the General Body on the basis of the following system:
  1. If there are  $n (>1)$  candidates, the voters shall either give a “no-preference” vote or  $(n-1)$  preferences. If there is 1 candidate, the voters shall give either a “no-preference” or a vote in favour of the contesting candidate.
  2. If the number of “no-preference” votes is greater than or equal to half of the total valid votes cast, then the election of that position shall stand void, and each candidate shall be barred from contesting again for the position of President or General Secretary. A re-election shall be held with no option of “no-preference”, that is, for  $n (>1)$  candidates, the voters shall give  $(n-1)$  preferences. If there is 1 candidate, they shall stand elected for that position. Counting shall be as per Article 3.09.04.
  3. If the number of “no-preference” votes is less than half of the total valid votes cast, then the “no-preference” votes shall be discarded and counting of the rest of the votes shall be as per Article 3.09.04.
  4. Counting shall be done in successive rounds. In the first round, only first preference votes shall be counted and the candidate with the least first preference votes shall be declared unsuccessful. In the next round, second preference votes of the unsuccessful candidates shall be added to the first preference count of continuing candidates and again the candidate with the lowest tally shall be declared unsuccessful. The procedure continues until one candidate, who shall be declared successful, secures half or more than half of the total valid votes remaining after discarding the no-preference votes.
11. Senators shall be elected from their respective batches on the basis of the following preferential voting system:

1. Each voter shall cast three preferences in favour of different candidates, the first preference carrying 5 points, the second preference carrying 3 points and the third preference carrying 1 point.
  2. Counting shall be done in successive rounds. The names of Senators shall be listed according to first preference points. If the requisite number of candidates got more than 500 first preference points, the requisite number of candidates in order of points obtained shall be elected. If otherwise, those getting above 500 points shall be elected and the rest shall be listed again according to first and second preference points and candidates getting above 750 points shall be considered for election in order of points obtained. If the requisite number of candidates are still not elected the rest of the senators shall be elected on the basis of combined first, second and third preference points.
12. The Chairperson shall be elected by the Senate from amongst the Senators. The elections of these positions for the incoming Senate shall be conducted by the Chairperson and Parliamentarian of the outgoing Senate in the following manner:
1. Any Senator who wishes to contest shall propose themselves.
  2. Each Senator and Executive shall cast one vote for one of the candidates or cast a no-preference vote. The vote of the President shall be hidden at all times, shall not be a no preference vote, and shall be considered in case of a tie.
  3. If a candidate gets more than half of the votes cast in any round of voting, they is declared elected.
  4. If not, candidate(s) with votes less than the number of no-preference votes are eliminated. If no one is eliminated in this manner, the candidate(s) with the least votes gets eliminated.
  5. Each Senator and Executive shall once again cast votes for the continuing candidates, and this process shall continue until either all candidates are eliminated or a candidate is declared elected in accordance with Article 3.12.03
  6. If a tie occurs as per Article 3.11.02, the vote of the President shall be counted to break the tie.
  7. If no one is elected, then elections will be held afresh. These elections will not have the option for a no-preference vote and any candidate who had been eliminated previously shall not be allowed to contest for the same post again.
13. The elections of the Parliamentarian and the Finance Convener shall also be conducted as per Article 3.12. In this case, the tie-breaking vote shall be that of the Chairperson and not the President.
14. The elections of the Conveners of the Standing Councils shall be conducted as per Article 3.12. In this case, any General Body member may contest after being proposed by a Senator. If a Senator wishes to contest for the position, they shall propose themselves.
15. If the position any Senate Office-bearer falls vacant in the middle of the Senate's term, by-elections shall be called by the Senate for that position. This election shall be conducted by the incumbent Chairperson or Parliamentarian or both (whichever is applicable) as per Article 3.12.

16. Notwithstanding any other Article in this Chapter except Article 3.09, the norms and modalities regarding the elections shall be fixed by the Election Commission which can be challenged only in the Senate. The Chief Election Officer shall present these in the Senate meeting before every election.
17. The outgoing Senate shall handover charge to the incoming Senate around 14th March. Under exceptional circumstances, this can be postponed for a period of two weeks.
