

Udghosh with its slogan "Mayhem for victory" is one of the largest Inter-collegiate festival of India organised by IIT Kanpur. Apart from being a major testing grounds for students of IIT Kanpur for preparation of upcoming Inter IIT Sports Meet it also witness huge spectator count for each and every event. Udghosh also provides a platform for athletic activities to both professional and amateur games/sports players among the student community.

Primarily team Udghosh 2019 envisions to provide best suitable exposure of sports and athletic events to the students of the campus for sports community of IITK we as team tries to invite as many sister IITs to Udghosh for preparation of IISM and also some of the best collegiate teams of the country. The three days of the Udghosh just after Mid-Semester examination will work as an antidote from hectic academic curriculum of the institute.

This year Team Udghosh 2019 plans to take one more step in social work by initiating Abhyuday which is focused on providing sports to children in villages nearby kanpur. Our second initiative is for school children i.e., Udghosh Young Champs which is a 2 day sports competition in different schools. Apart from pre-festival initiatives this year we have introduced Skating in our formal events

At last but not least Udghosh 2019 envisions to make an impact on sponsors, students, participants, officials and each and everyone who is a part of Udghosh want to be a part of it for upcoming years.
