One team per house with (7+2) players.

Matches will be conducted in knockout format.

1st and 2nd will be decided by the tournament and other positions will be decided by goal difference and penalties.

13. Chess:

3 entries will be taken per house. The game is going to be played between 2 players from different teams. All the team members must belong to the same house. 3 players play against the 3 players of their opponent team on a chessboard. If a player from Team A wins against a player from Team B, then he gets 1 point for his team and if they end in a draw, both the players get 0.5 points for their team, to be added into the round points of the team. At the end of each round, the winner team of each match will be given 1 point while the other will be awarded a zero. The winner will be decided on the basis of the round points. If the round points of both the teams playing against each other are the same, both the teams will be awarded 0.5 points. For example, If team A playing against team B wins 3 out of 4 matches and loses 1 (That is 3 of the players in team A win their matches), then it gains 3 round points while team B gains 1. So, team A will be declared as the winner and will be awarded 1 point. The points of the team as a whole will be considered for ranking and not that of individual players. All the rules outlined by FIDE for tournaments shall be applicable.

Closing Ceremony :

A closing ceremony and trophies and goodies distribution ceremony will be on Sunday, 4th August.

Disruption/Postponement:

Any event abandoned, or disrupted due to unavoidable reasons shall be postponed or continued as the case may be and as per rules specified in the current rules of the respective sports. In case where the sports rules cannot be implemented, the decision will be left to the General Secretary, Games and Sports, whose decision shall be final.

Conduct/Protest:

For all games and sports, the decisions of the Referees/Umpires will be final and binding and no protest will be entertained. Therefore any team leaving the field of play as a mark of protest and conceding a walk over shall be deemed to have lost the fixture and will be eliminated from the event. Only the remaining teams will be considered as participants in that event. A team/competitor shall be permitted a grace time of 15 minutes from the announced timing of an event and then a walkover shall be awarded unless genuine reasons beyond control are presented and accepted by the core team. Any player of other house playing for another house, will be dealt seriously. The house for which he/she is playing will be rusticated in that particular event or as per the core team decision. The umpire present may take an independent decision at his discretion with consent from the participating teams and the Core Team, AAGAZ'19.
