Motivation behind Positions of Responsibility Handbook

There are numerous positions of responsibility which a student may hold during his/her stay in this institute which allows him/her to manage the various activities he/she may be responsible for. These posts are also intertwined in many ways. This has led to the existence of a large and complicated hierarchy between all these posts which is almost indecipherable to an outsider.

To assist companies who come to campus for recruitment, there is a need for a comprehensive guide to all the available Positions of Responsibility so that recruiters are able to accurately gauge the work done by and the responsibilities held by applicants. This will also assist the companies in understanding the structure of positions in the
